Dear members of the Board of Selectmen,

Attached you will find the library's November service report and financial report.

Areas of note from the November Service report:

- The library offered five adult programs, eight child programs, and two-family programs in November.
- The number of adults at the adult programs was 65, and 180 children participated in child activities.
- The number of children's programs offered has increased by 11% from last year
- Overall circulation has remained steady at a 28% increase.
- The number of people using the public computers is up 44% from this time last year
- Children's programs included book bingo, UDS visits, Dinosaur Day, Preschool Storytime, art exploration, and STEM activities
- Adults participated in the true crime book club, a movie night, women & social security, an art craft, and Guiding Eyes for the Blind gave a presentation on guide dogs.
- Families went on a bus trip to Radio City Music Hall.

Areas of note regarding the November FY (Fiscal Year) 22_23 Financial Report:

42% of the overall library budget has been expended. The line items are where they are to be expected.

Thank you for your continued support of the Beacon Falls Public Library.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Setaro-Posick

Library Director
